Away From Opening Game of Virginia League Scason in Norfolk. Twelve Hundred Witness Contest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., May 27.-Richmond was unable to solve Cullatan's delivery after the first inning and the opening game of the Virginia League season on the home grounds went to Norfolk, by the score of 3 to 2.

The Colts started off with a two-run lead to the first inning the only frame. The Colts started off with a two-run lead in the first inning, the only frame in which Cullatan got in a hole. The Norfolk pitcher walked two men, and hit one in this inning and was touched up for two hits. Eady was also found for two runs in the first inning, after he walked one man and another was safe on a hit. Devlin drove the ball over the left fielder's head for two bases, and both men scored.

In the third the locals got their tally when Terhune was safe on an infield hit, stole second, went to third on a sacrifice hit and scored on an outfield

Rumor has it that Moseley, who figured in the game with the Goobers on Saturday, will quit the Colt squad shortly.

Just what "Mac" Pitt, who was placed at third base by Manager Stinson in place of Moseley on the opening day, will do, is uncertain. Pitt signed with the Colts with the understanding that his contract was only temporary, and that he would be probably stick with the squad until Stinson landed another likely third sacker.

Nobody knows what was the object of the practical joker in Hopewell who sent word to Richmond that Pitcher Eady's wife was seriously ill. Eady did not leave the city when the message was received by Stinson, and explained his action; or, rather, lack of action, by the statement that he knew the joker personally. Which, when translated, means that Eady knew the average truth of the joker's statements.
